Inés is reading his/her favourite book for the third time. He/She imagines herself flying in a plane to her favourite place in the world... "the candy land". It is ^{so} small that you can't see it in the map. In this island everything is made of candy. The plane lands on the airport and I go to the candy forest to eat as many candies as possible. Then I go to the chocolate lake but when I am swimming the candies monster tries to eat me. I swim faster than him and he is stuck in the chocolate. I stop running and I suddenly remember that my plane comes back home at five o'clock. Oh no! I am late! I rush to the airport and I see my plane ready to go. Finally I get on it but my tummy begins to hurt. Too much candy and too much chocolate!
